

FAQ's

We are doing several things that have never been attempted before in an outdoor EXPO

- 1) Bringing several of the OUTDOOR WORLDS together – many times the outdoor world's separate- but we think we can unite them. At Elm Fork on this much land we can separate the outdoor worlds into smaller villages, helping them stay true to their uniqueness- yet still uniting them in one venue. This way the kids can explore their talents and success' all in 1 day. All the kids will need to do is bring their energy! Our generous sponsors and volunteers will help provide food, fun and facilitate activities of safe education and exploration.
- 2) Introducing Outdoor worlds not previously invited to the EXPO. Fitness, Outdoor Boot Camps, Outdoor Power Yoga, Mountain Biking, BMX, Extreme Sports, Live Shot Show Exhibitions, X Game Challenges and more now invited to join in the outdoor EXPO fun. Accepting the challenge to "Putting the Wild back in the Wild". Our mission is to not only include new outdoor worlds to the expo but also introduce new people to the "original" EXPO sports. It brings new visitors to the old sports. New sports bring new people. More sports bring more people!
- 3) By "open separation" of villages, visitors who want to come for specific sports can come into EXPO for those sports. We pattern this idea from Disney World once inside the Outdoor Expo there are so many exciting different "World or Villages" to explore. See what you want or really get wild and check out something new and different- you never know what you might learn to love or what you might be good at. Incentives will given to kids who explore all villages (t-shirts, prizes etc)
- 4) Vendors and food vendors will be placed throughout the Expo. Vendors and Food vendors will come from invitation only. Only top of the line products and Exhibits will be displayed at this Expo.
